Mr. Raymond Gressett
Rt. 1, Box 140
Chunky, MS 39323

Dear Mr. Gressett,

Thank you kindly for your recent letter about Battlefield Cemetery's location. Now that I know it was on the May place, it fits in with the directions my uncle of Neshoba County gave to Purifoy Tingle's burial place. He didn't know the cemetery had disappeared and this explains why cousins Melvin of Decatur and Ernest Tingle of Meridian drove for hours two or three years ago looking for Purifoy's grave but found nothing.

You mention Tingles buried at Sageville Cemetery. Ernest Tingle who lives south of Meridian on Hwy 45 says his father and mother are are there. They are Thomas Harrell Tingle (son of Thomas Whitfield Tingle and grandson of Purifoy) and his wife Aldonia Mayatt Tingle, whose family was from the Battlefield area. Also Thomas Harrell's son Jay P. (John Purifoy) Tingle and his wife Jessie Louise Rawson Tingle, born in Lauderdale County, are buried at Sageville.

Some cemeteries I visited in May 1986, Newton County, looking for Purifoy Tingle's grave are:

PLEASANT GROVE: Buried here are Thomas Whitfield Tingle (oldest son of Purifoy) and his wife Sarah Elizabeth Coughran Tingle. And Charles F. (youngest son of Purifoy) Tingle and first wife Samantha Ann ___________. Charles preceded his second wife Kathleen of Union in death. I don't know her resting place--thought it might be Union.

FELLOWSHIP CEMETERY: No Tingles here but did find graves of Woodard W. Moore and wife Elizabeth Townsend Moore, who lived next dwelling to Purifoy Tingle on 1860 census of Newton County.

LIBERTY CEMETERY: No Tingles. C. S. Eshee, husband of Mary Kate Tingle is buried here, having died in 1985.

PROSPECT CONG. METHODIST CEMETERY on Hwy 19. No Tingles. Some Mayatts are buried here.

MT. NEBO BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY on Hwy 19. No Tingles. Mayatts here too.

TOWN CEMETERY, UNION, MS. Narcissa Ann Tingle, wife of J. W. Whitaker and daughter of Thomas Whitfield Tingle is here. No Kathleen, wife of Charles that we could find.

MOORE CEMETERY in Battlefield area. No Tingles.

BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY at Little Rock. No Tingles.

We may have gone to one or two other places but no Tingles found.

As for Purifoy Tingle's other sons, William P. is buried in Carroll Co., MS; Benjamin F. (my great-grandfather) buried in Tingle family cem., Perry County, MS; and Green Bunyon Tingle buried in Titus County, Texas.

I sure appreciate your letter and if you know more about Tingles in the Battlefield area I would be grateful if you let me know when you have time. Meantime, maybe some record of Purifoy Tingle's death or of his wife Martha Gilpin Tingle can be ferreted out of some archive.

My very best regards to you and your family. May good health be yours.

Sincerely, Ann T. Lila

Mr. Raymond Gressett
Rt 1, Box 146
Chunky, MS 39323

Dear Mr. Gressett,

Mr. Jim Dawson of Meridian has referred me to you for information on the Battlefield area of Newton County and perhaps some of its people.

I am a great-great-granddaughter of an early resident of that community, Purifoy Tingle, working on a Tingle family history of his descendents. Do you mind if I ask some questions to jog your memory and see if we can come up with a little history.

Can you affirm that the cemetery site on the J.O. May place is Battlefield cemetery - east side of Hwy 491, or right going north. A cemetery symbol is not shown at this spot on the 1985 map of Newton Co. I got at Chancery office in Decatur last summer. The map does list other churches and cemeteries.

The way we learned of this cemetery location was by asking a local resident, Mrs. Lula Davis McClain, age 90, a black lady, if she knew of a cemetery in the area where Tingles were buried. She gave directions to the site on the May place, saying it had no markers or tombstones. She knew some who were buried there including her parents Isom and Mandy Thames Davis, and her brother Bobbie Davis. She named Tingles: Lee, Jesse and Harrison, all blacks. She did not know about white Tingles. We then got permission from a member of the May family to go to the cemetery located on a knoll in their pasture by the highway. After taking three pictures we left.

A couple of days later we spoke to Mr. May. He said there were 20 to 30 graves on the knoll. Whites supposedly buried on top and blacks buried on the lower slopes. The tombstones or grave markers disappeared 3 years before he moved onto the place 14 years ago. No one had seen them or knew where they were taken. He gave us names of two white long-time residents of the area that might have information on the cemetery.

One was Mrs. Edna Keen on down Hwy 491 south. Mrs. Keen said her mother, a Hitt before she married, was buried in that cemetery. (Hitts were early residents of the area, noted on old census records.) The other person we spoke with was a Mrs. Eshee who said she knew someone buried there also. I do not recall who and my notes do not say.

Do you know if there is a record of who is buried at "Battlefield" cemetery? We were searching for Purifoy Tingle's grave and visited a number of cemeteries in northeast Newton County without finding it. Two of his sons, Thomas W. and Charles F. are buried at Pleasant Grove.

My great-uncle John Tingle (a grandson of Purifoy) told to older family members that when he was 8 years old he attended Purifoy's funeral and the grave was lined with rocks hauled by wagon from local hills by some black friends who esteemed him highly. Uncle John was born in 1870 and died in 1952. I also have land records from Decatur indicating my ancestor owned land that could be ~~the~~ near May place among other holdings.

May I please hear from you regarding this place/(Battlefield Cemetery) and its history? If you can contribute any information it would fill a big gap in our family history which I am anxious to complete. I shall appreciate your help very much.

Sincerely, Mrs. Ann Tingle Lila, 1423 East 3rd St., Mesa, Arizona 85203

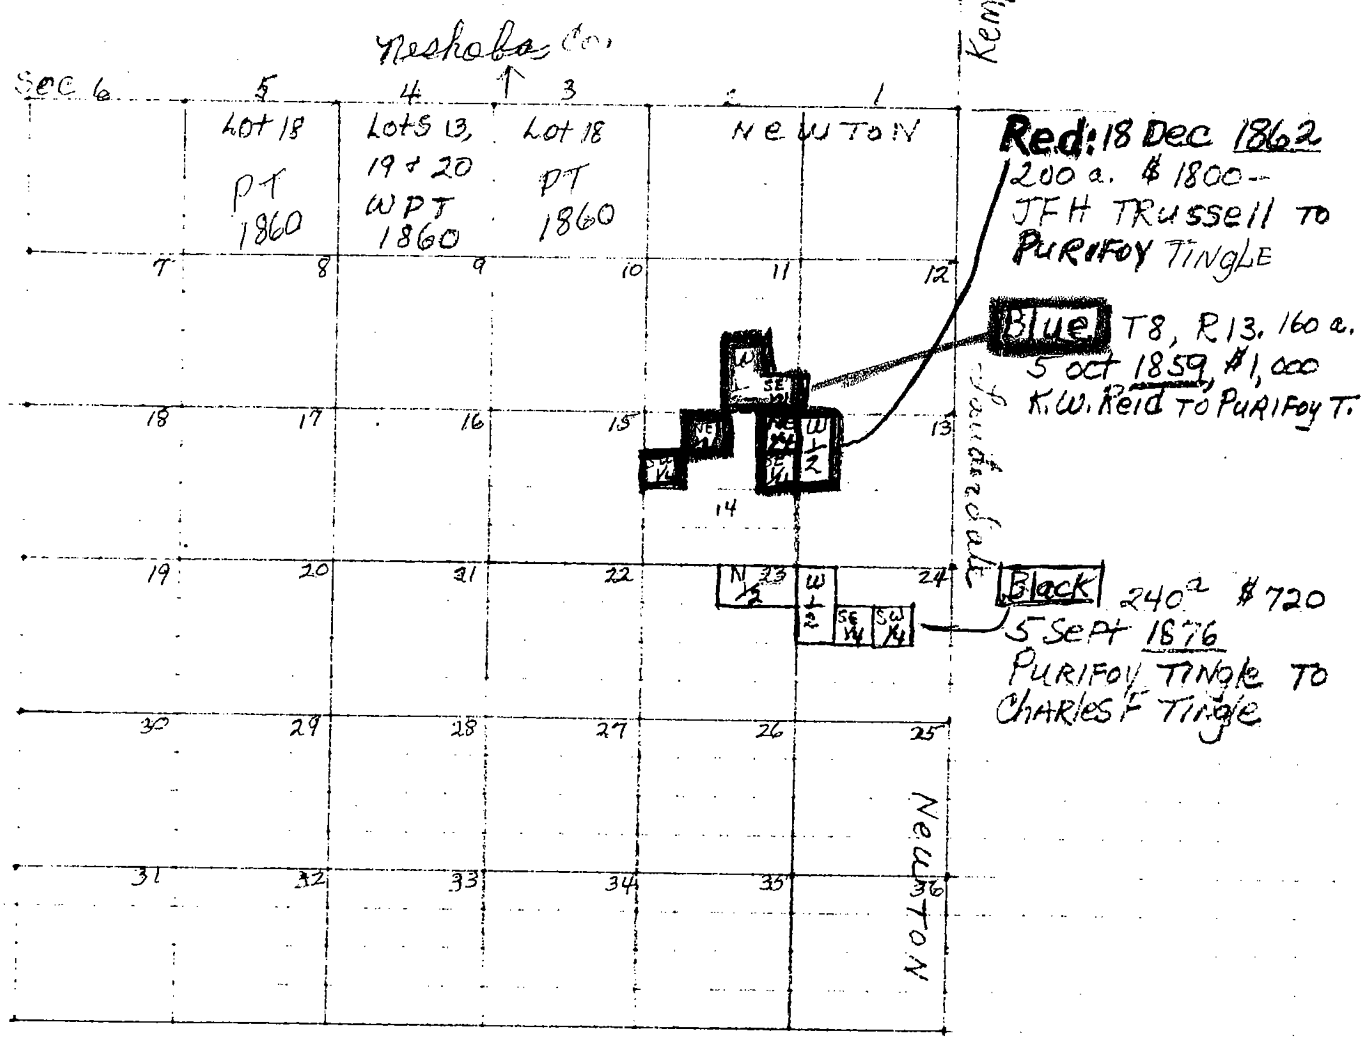

The black Tingles Mrs. McClain referred to are:

1880 Newton Co Census, ED 86, p 40
  Jesse Tingle, born 1868 in MS
  Harrison Tingle, born 1869 in MS, brother of Jesse. Father was James of GEORGIA.
1900 Newton Co Census, Beat 2, p 8A
  Lee Tingle, born March 1883 in MS. Father was Warren of VIRGINIA.

We think these Tingles (James and Warren) came as slaves with Purifoy Tingle from Monroe County, GA, around 1856.

The Thames name came into Mrs. McClain's family because her maternal grandfather was working on the Thames place when freed, although he was not owned by Mr Thames. This according to Mrs. Lula Davis McClain as told to us in May 1986. ATL/Mesa AZ

Some land holdings of Tingles in northeast Newton County, Mississippi. Several land recordings of Tom W. Tingle are on file in Decatur but pressed for time, I did not get them. Later perhaps.

I cannot identify exact location of lots in Sections 3, 4 and 5 without further research. These were acquired by land patent in 1860.
